

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR PURCHASE ORDERS

This Purchase Order constitutes the entire contract between the vendor or seller named on the face hereof (“Supplier”) and LMI Aerospace, Inc., or one of its affiliates (“Buyer”) covering the goods described in this Purchase Order (the “goods”). Supplier’s acceptance of this Purchase Order shall constitute Supplier’s agreement to the terms and conditions stated herein, without any modification, addition or alteration. Commencement of performance by Supplier or acknowledgement by Supplier of this Purchase Order shall constitute Supplier’s acceptance of these terms and conditions notwithstanding any contrary provisions appearing on any forms of Supplier.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. SPECIFICATIONS: Supplier shall comply with any specifications stated on the face of this Purchase Order and with any applicable United States Government specifications. Upon request, Supplier shall provide Buyer with a certificate executed by an authorized representative of Supplier setting forth Supplier’s agreement to comply with all such applicable specifications.
2. INSPECTION: Supplier grants Buyer (or customers of Buyer or any governmental regulatory agencies) quality control access to Supplier’s plant or manufacturing facilities, including the freedom to witness and audit all phases of fabrication, testing, and storage of the goods sold to Buyer. Preliminary inspection by Buyer or the failure of Buyer to inspect the goods shall not be deemed to constitute acceptance of any goods which do not conform to the specifications therefor, or to waive any of Buyer’s rights or remedies arising by virtue of such defects or non-conformance. If any goods are found to be defective or otherwise not in conformity with the requirements of this Purchase Order, Buyer may, in addition to its other rights and remedies, reject such goods and require their prompt correction or their replacement at Supplier’s expense, including shipping and packaging charges. Alternatively, Buyer may repair or replace such nonconforming goods at Supplier’s expense, along with electing any other remedy provided in Section 11 or at law.
3. INSPECTION OF RECORDS AND PLANT: If this Purchase Order is a subcontract under a government prime contract, Supplier agrees that its books, records, and its plant, or other such parts of its plant as may be engaged in the performance of this Purchase Order, shall at all reasonable times be subject to inspection and audit by any authorized representative of Buyer and any Department of the United States Government.
4. PRICE: The price of the goods to be delivered is specified on the Purchase Order and no Purchase Order shall be filled at prices higher than specified herein. If price terms are omitted from the face hereof, the price of the goods shall be the lower of (i) the price last quoted or paid (whichever is later), or (ii) the prevailing market price at the time of shipment, or time and material as expressly defined by the terms of the Purchase Order. Unless otherwise provided herein, prices set forth in this Purchase Order include all applicable federal, state and local taxes and duties or other charges. Buyer shall not be responsible for charges for packing, boxing, storage or cartage, unless expressly included on the face of this Purchase Order. Supplier represents and warrants that the price is no higher than the lowest prices offered by Supplier to any customer purchasing the same or lesser total aggregate dollar or unit volume.

5. DELIVERY: The delivery date for the goods to be delivered by Supplier shall be specified on the Purchase Order. Time is of the essence in the delivery by Supplier of goods specified in this Purchase Order. Failure of the Supplier to make delivery of goods within the time specified on the face of the Purchase Order, or within any extension specified by written change Purchase Order, shall be a material breach hereof. If Supplier fails to meet its scheduled delivery dates Buyer may require expedited shipment at no additional cost to Buyer. In addition and without limiting any other of Buyer's rights or remedies, either as set out in this Agreement or at law or in equity, Buyer may assess liquidated damages of one percent (1%) per day of the price of the goods until such goods are delivered to Buyer.

Supplier shall not deliver and Buyer shall not be obligated to accept goods delivered more than five (5) days in advance of the delivery date specified on the Purchase Order unless Buyer has specifically authorized such early delivery in writing, in advance.

6. QUANTITIES: The quantity of goods to be delivered by Supplier shall be set forth in the Purchase Order. Supplier shall not deliver and Buyer shall not be obligated to accept quantities of goods in excess of the quantity specified on this Purchase Order ("Excess Goods"). Buyer shall have the right to reject and return to Supplier at Supplier's expense, any Excess Goods and Buyer shall not be charged for or obligated to pay for Excess Goods unless Buyer, at its option, elects to accept such Excess Goods.

Buyer may revise shipping instructions as to any goods not then shipped. Buyer shall have the right to delay delivery of any goods for a period of up to sixty (60) days at no cost to Buyer.
8. PAYMENT: Payment terms shall be net sixty (60), commencing upon the later of (i) receipt of Supplier's invoice or (ii) upon receipt of the goods. Buyer and its affiliates shall have the right, at any time, to set off and apply amounts owed hereunder against any obligation that Supplier or its affiliates owes to Buyer or any of its affiliates.

Invoices shall be sent to the following address unless otherwise noted:

9. RISK OF LOSS: Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, title to and risk of loss of the goods shall remain with Supplier until the goods are delivered at the F.O.B. point specified in this Purchase Order, or if no such point is specified, then when the goods are delivered to Buyer. However, if the goods are of an explosive, inflammable, toxic or otherwise dangerous nature, Supplier shall hold Buyer harmless from and against any and all claims asserted against Buyer on account of any personal injuries and/or property damages caused by the goods, or by the transportation thereof, prior to the completion of unloading at Buyer's plant or warehouse.
10. WARRANTIES: Supplier warrants to and covenants with Buyer as follows: (i) Supplier will deliver to Buyer title to the goods free and clear of all security interests, liens, charges, restrictions or encumbrances of any kind, nature or description; (ii) the goods shall comply with any applicable specifications/requirements provided by Buyer and shall be free from defects in material and/or workmanship for a period of not less than forty-eight months (48) from the date of delivery; (iii) unless otherwise specified in this Purchase Order, the goods shall be new and not used or reconditioned; (iv) the goods and their packaging shall conform to the description thereof and/or specifications therefor contained in this Purchase Order.
In the event of Supplier's breach of this Section 9, Buyer may take any or all of the following actions without prejudice to any rights or remedies available to Buyer by law: (i) require Supplier to repair or replace such goods, and upon Supplier's failure or refusal to do so within two business days of Buyer's request, repair or replace the same at Supplier's expense; (ii) reject any shipment or delivery containing defective or non-conforming goods and return for credit or replacement at Buyer's option, said return to be made at Supplier's cost and risk; (iii) cancel any outstanding deliveries hereunder and treat such breach by Supplier as Supplier's repudiation of this Purchase Order. In the event of Buyer's breach hereunder, Supplier's exclusive remedy shall be Supplier's recovery of the goods or the purchase price payable for goods shipped prior to such breach.
11. SUBCONTRACTING: Supplier agrees that it will not enter into a subcontract for the procurement of any goods covered by this Purchase Order in their complete or substantially complete form without first obtaining written approval of Buyer.
12. ORDER OF PRECEDENCE: In the event of any conflict between the terms specified on the face of the Purchase Order and any terms of these General Terms and Conditions, the terms specified on the face of the Purchase Order shall prevail.

Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, the reduction, depletion, shortage, curtailment or cessation of Supplier’s raw materials or any other supplies or materials of Supplier shall not be regarded as an event of force majeure. The party affected by a force majeure event shall give notice thereof to the other party within ten days following the occurrence thereof and shall apprise the other party of the probable extent to which the party declaring the force majeure event will be unable to perform or will be unable to perform or will be delayed in performing its obligations hereunder. The party declaring the force majeure event shall exercise due diligence to eliminate or remedy the force majeure cause and shall give the other party prompt notice when that has been accomplished. Except as provided herein, if performance of this Purchase Order by either party is delayed, interrupted or prevented by reason of any event of force majeure, both parties shall be excused from performing hereunder while and to the extent that the force majeure condition exists after which the parties’ performance shall be resumed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, within five days following Supplier’s declaration of a force majeure event which prevents its full and/or timely delivery of the goods hereunder, Buyer may, at its option and without liability (1) require Supplier to apportion among its customers the goods available for delivery during the force majeure period: (2) cancel any or all delayed or reduced deliveries; or (3) cancel any outstanding deliveries hereunder and terminate this Purchase Order. If Buyer accepts reduced deliveries or cancels the same, Buyer may procure substitute goods from other sources, in which event this contract shall be deemed modified to eliminate Supplier’s obligation to sell and Buyer’s obligation to purchase such substituted goods. After cessation of a force majeure event declared by Supplier, Supplier shall, at Buyer’s option but not otherwise, be obligated to deliver goods not delivered during the force majeure period. After cessation of a force majeure event declared by Buyer, neither party shall be obligated to deliver or purchase goods not so delivered and purchased during the force majeure period.
